

WE ARE IN THIS together

During these uncertain times, our resilience is being tested in so many ways. From navigating the challenges of working remotely with colleagues under stress to negotiating new work arrangements, the HMS/HSDM/HSPH Ombuds Office is here to support faculty, staff, students, trainees and appointees at the affiliated institutions with any issue impacting your work or studies.

To schedule a confidential phone, Zoom, WebEx or Skype appointment, contact robin_cheung@hms.harvard.edu or call 617-432-4041.

Confidential meetings will be with:

HMS/HSDM/HSPH Ombudsperson, Melissa Brodrick, melissa_brodrick@hms.harvard.edu, 617-432-4040, or business cell 617-513-1348

HMS/HSDM/HSPH Associate Ombudsperson, Justin Neiman, justin_neiman@hms.harvard.edu, 617-432-4043 or business cell 617-480-4700

The Ombuds Office supports an ethical and civil culture, encouraging mutual understanding and resolution through respectful dialogue and fair processes.

HMS/HSDM/HSPH OMBUDS OFFICE

164 Longwood Ave., 1st floor, Boston, MA 02115

OFFICE 617-432-4041 WEB hms.harvard.edu/departments/ombuds-office (includes self-help resources)